

ANGKOR RESOURCES CELEBRATES NEW GOVERNOR OF RATANAKIRI PROVINCE, CAMBODIA

GRANDE PRAIRIE, AB, (March 9, 2022): Angkor Resources Corp. (TSXV: ANK and OTCQB: ANKOF) (“Angkor” or “the Company”) reports its celebration of new Governor of Ratanakiri Province.

The appointment of a new Governor of Ratanakiri Province in the Kingdom of Cambodia, Nhem Samoeurn, was celebrated by government, community, and industry leaders. Angkor was invited as a leading industry proponent in the province of Ratanakiri, where the Company has operated for the past 12 years.

The Governor recognized the contributions of Angkor and indicated that foreign companies like Angkor with a strong commitment to leadership and ethics are in high demand in the country.

Angkor has established strong long-term relationships with all levels of government over the past 12 years. Mike Weeks, Exec. VP Operations attended the formal inauguration and then represented Angkor at the Governor's table for dinner with the British Ambassador Tina Redshaw and Sr. Minister Thuch Ly.

CEO D. Weeks comments, "Positive government relations are paramount for long-term success in the resource sector of every country. Establishing strong two-way communications and cooperative efforts become especially important in developing nations such as Cambodia. Angkor strives for high trust and integrity with all levels of government from local villages to regional, provincial, and federal authorities."
